I HAVE RECEIVED A COMPLAINT ABOUT MY PROPERTY,

WHAT DO I DO?

This brochure outlines the steps you need to take after a complaint has been made about your property. Contact the Code Compliance Officer located in the Building Department for specific information.

1. I received a certified letter in the mail?

The letter will state the nature of the complaint and when you need to respond.

2. What is my responsibility?

STEP #1 – Call the Code Compliance Officer at 800-583-8078 or 509-773-3706 before the deadline date in the letter.

Note: Due to confidentiality, please discuss any and all matters directly with the Code Compliance Office.

STEP #2 – The nature of the alleged violation will determine the next steps to be taken, (ie: application for a permit, site inspection, etc.)

STEP #3 – The Compliance Officer will work with you to schedule the work to be done, and a time frame that is reasonable to accomplish the task.

3. Can I find out who made the complaint?

Revised Code of Washington, Title 42.17.310(e) allows the complainant to remain anonymous at their request.

3. Are there any fines associated with an alleged violation?

If a permit is required, there will be a charge for the permit. If you are willing to work with the Code Compliance Officer, and comply in a timely manner, there are not generally fines. If the violation is not brought into compliance, you may be subject to penalties as established in Klickitat County Code.
